Testimonials

Dramatize day service is the only place outside of home where my daughter's abilities rather than her disabilities are supported, developed and even celebrated. The ethos is definitely one of developing the full potential of each student and of encouraging communication to support key life skills. It is such a positive and supportive team where life-long friendships have been made and experiences have been offered which my daughter would otherwise never have encountered. My extensive research did not find another service which offered the same respect, compassion and energy. Stimulating, fun and central to our lives.

Georgia has been coming to Dramatize for several years and would be happy never to leave! At Dramatize she has friends and staff who bring out the best in her, despite her complex needs, she has made good progress I wouldn't hesitate to recommend this service.

My 25-year-old daughter has been accessing Dramatize Day Service for 6 years and their other services for many years before that and I couldn't think of anywhere else she would rather be. They offer a caring and safe environment in which she leads an enriched, active and happy life. The staff are all angels in disguise and bring joy to the students in everything they do. We have seen Dramatize develop over the years and look forward to the future in their capable hands.

Dramatize makes my daughter's life fun and fulfilled. Delicious toasties and cakes in the tea room.

Ags is non-verbal and I as her caregiver have been part of the Dramatize family for 9 years. I respect, admire and praise Dramatize simply because of their patience, sincere devotion, dedication and love for their job and young adults which they encourage to do their best. The staff tailor the days to give each individual the support for their specific needs. Dramatize provides a comfortable and happy environment to learn and develop. Ags has learned, progressed and made friends. She is genuinely happier in every aspect of her life and so am I knowing my special girl is happy. Thank you Dramatize for the outstanding work you do!
